*Confession Of Faith

Minister: Christians, what do you believe?

All: We believe that in this life those who are effectively called partake of justification, adoption, sanctification, and the other benefits that either accompany or come from them.

We believe that the benefits that in this life accompany or come from justification, adoption, and sanctification are: the assurance of God's love, peace of conscience, joy in the Holy Spirit, and growing and persevering in grace to the end of our lives.

We believe that at death, our souls are made perfectly holy and immediately pass into glory; and our bodies, being still united in Christ, rest in our graves until the resurrection.

We believe that at the resurrection, we will be raised in glory, publicly recognized and declared not guilty on Judgment Day, and will be made perfectly blessed in the full enjoyment of God for all eternity.

(from Westminster Shorter Catechism in Modern English 32, 36–38)

Scripture Reading

Acts 19:11–19:41

Confession Of Sin

All: O LORD, rebuke me not in your anger, nor discipline me in your wrath! For your arrows have sunk into me, and your hand has come down on me. There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation; there is no health in my bones because of my sin. For my iniquities have gone over my head; like a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me... For I am ready to fall, and my pain is ever before me. I confess my iniquity; I am sorry for my sin... Do not forsake me, O LORD! O my God, be not far from me! Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation! (Psalm 38:1–4, 17–18, 21–22)

* Congregation stands as able.

Assurance Of Pardon

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written, “For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.” No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Romans 8:35–39)
