Lord's Supper. Next week we will partake of Communion together. As you prepare, remember the Apostle Paul warns us in 1 Corinthians 11:

“Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself...But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world.”

Minister: Christians, what is the greatest commandment?

All: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (Deuteronomy 6:4–7; Matthew 22:39–40)
