*Hymn Of Adoration

“Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise”
Trinity Psalter Hymnal #224

*Prayer Of Invocation

*Confession Of Faith

Minister: Christians, what do you believe?

All: We believe that in this life those who are effectively called partake of justification, adoption, sanctification, and the other benefits that either accompany or come from them.

We believe that the benefits that in this life accompany or come from justification, adoption, and sanctification are: the assurance of God's love, peace of conscience, joy in the Holy Spirit, and growing and persevering in grace to the end of our lives. We believe that at death, our souls are made perfectly holy and immediately pass into glory; and our bodies, being still united in Christ, rest in our graves until the resurrection.

We believe that at the resurrection, we will be raised in glory, publicly recognized and declared not guilty on Judgment Day, and will be made perfectly blessed in the full enjoyment of God for all eternity.

(from Westminster Shorter Catechism in Modern English 32, 36–38)

Scripture Reading

1 Peter 1:3–5 (Page 1014)

Confession Of Sin

All: O Lord, You have mercy upon all—take away from us all our sins, and mercifully kindle in us the fire of Your Holy Spirit. Take away from us a heart of stone, and give us a heart of flesh, a heart to love and adore You, a heart to delight in You, to follow and to enjoy You, for Christ's sake. Amen. (Ambrose of Milan, c. AD 339–397)

* Congregation stands as able.

Assurance Of Pardon

There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death...For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. (Romans 8:1-2, 29-30)
